Inspector No

*given stamp 1/22/01
11/28/01*

Primary inspector for Wail al Shehri and Ahmed Haznawi at Miami
Miami International Airport on June 8, 2001 had stamp no. 3033.

Use of name in report: The Commission would agree, if you want, that the Commission will not use your name or your personal information without prior consultation with DHS/CBP about the information we seek to use. Unless we really feel the need, we won't use your name. However, we will not make the flat promise that we will not under any circumstances use your name. (Circumstances when would use name: probably only in making policy recommendations or factual information that requires a quote.)

Who else has interviewed you: DOJ OIG, FBI, DHS, CBP.

Do you recollect the inspection of this pair Wail al Shehri and Ahmed Haznawi on June 8, 2001?

Were you assigned no. [] on that date?

Length of service at INS.

Normal primary.

- Please describe the standard operating procedures you employ in primary screening, including questions asked, documents reviewed, and databases checked.
- Length of stay for B1s: was there a standard length of stay given pre 9/11? Was that a port decision, or national operating policy? If you gave less than the standard time, were there professional repercussions?
- Length of stay for B2s: was there any discretion in length of stay granted B2s pre 9/11?
- Length of stay for vocational students: what was your understanding of the rule? Did the one year limitation include the 30 days to leave, or was the 30 days tacked on at the end of the stay so that the stay in reality was 13 months?
- Processing time at Atlanta: was there a standard processing time?
 Any professional repercussions if did not meet that processing time?
- Was there a port policy about referrals to secondary; a certain criteria that had to be met to refer to secondary?
- Return ticket/ flight itinerary. Did you always ask for flight itinerary for unusual travel? For a return ticket?

Review of passport and visa.

- What do you look for on the document to determine whether fraud or not?
- Can you read Arabic stamps/cachets?
- Have you received any training in reading documents other than FLETC prior to 9/11?

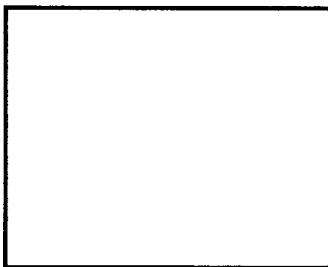

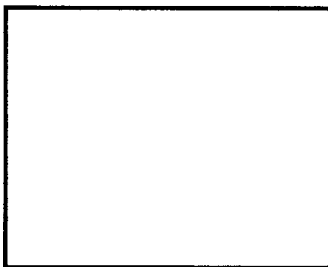

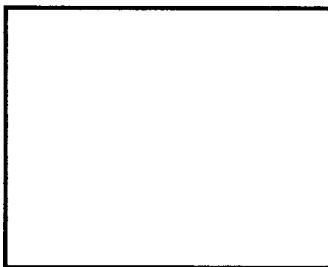

- Does the port always make sure there are inspectors on duty in secondary with expertise in documents and stamps?
- Familiar with the Redbook?

Treatment of Emirates and Saudis.

- How did inspectors view Saudis pre 9/11? Ever considered a threat to national security?
 - At Newark, did you ever notice that any particular nationalities were treated any differently than others?
 - What about Saudis in particular?
 - How did the treatment affect adjudication of Saudis?
 - If you could not communicate with a Saudi, what would you do?
 - Were there any Arabic speakers in INS inspections at Newark? Did you always have to rely on the airlines?
 - Would the airline help you out?

Profiling.

- What unusual characteristics about an alien applying for admission would cause you concern and result in a referral to secondary?

Paperwork Reduction Act Notice: The Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995 requires that we collect the information, how we will use it and what it will be used for to give it to us. We ask for your cooperation in complying with these laws and Agriculture and Currency laws of the United States. We need to know how you are complying with these laws and to allow us to figure and collect the right amount of duties and taxes. Your response is mandatory.
Statement required by 5 CFR 1320.21: The estimated average burden associated with this collection of information is 3 minutes per respondent or recordkeeper depending on individual circumstances. Comments concerning the accuracy of this burden estimate and suggestions for reducing this burden should be directed to U.S. Customs Service, Paperwork Management Branch, Washington, DC 20229, and to the Office of Management and Budget, Paperwork Reduction Project (1515-0041), Washington, DC 20503.

WARNING

The smuggling or unlawful importation of controlled substances regardless of amount is a violation of U.S. law.

Accuracy of your declaration may be verified through questioning and physical search

AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS

To prevent the entry of dangerous agricultural pests the following are restricted: Fruits, vegetables, plants, plant products, soil, meats, meat products, birds, snails, and other live animals or animal products. Failure to declare all such items to a Customs/Agriculture Officer can result in fines or other penalties.

CURRENCY AND MONETARY INSTRUMENTS

The transportation of currency or monetary instruments, regardless of amount, is legal; however, if you take out of or bring into (or are about to take out of or bring into) the United States more than $10,000 (U.S. or foreign equivalent, or a combination of the two) in coin, currency, travelers checks or bearer instruments such as money orders, checks, stocks or bonds, you are required by law to file a report on a Form 4790 with the U.S. Customs Service. If you have someone else carry the currency or instruments for you, you must also file the report. FAILURE TO FILE THE REQUIRED REPORT OR FALSE STATEMENTS ON THE REPORT MAY LEAD TO SEIZURE OF THE CURRENCY OR INSTRUMENTS AND TO CIVIL PENALTIES AND/OR CRIMINAL PROSECUTION

MERCHANDISE

In Item 11, U.S. residents must declare the total value of ALL articles acquired abroad (whether new or used, whether dutiable or not, and whether obtained by purchase, as a gift, or otherwise), including those purchases made in DUTY FREE stores in the U.S. or abroad, which are in their or their family's possession at the time of arrival. Visitors must declare in Item 11 the total value of all gifts and commercial items, including samples they are bringing with them.

The amount of duty to be paid will be determined by a Customs officer. U.S. residents are normally entitled to a duty free exemption of $400 on those items accompanying them; non-residents are normally entitled to an exemption of $100. Both residents and non-residents will normally be required to pay a flat 10% rate of duty on the first $1,000 above their exemptions.

If the value of goods declared in Item 11 EXCEEDS $1,400 PER PERSON, then list ALL articles below and show price paid in U.S. dollars or, for gifts, fair retail value. If additional space is needed, continue on another Customs Form 6059B.
